

Only a dad with a tired face,
Coming home from the daily race,
Toiling and striving from day to day,
Facing whatever may come his way,
Glad in his heart that his own rejoice
To see him come home and to hear his voice.

Only a dad, but he gives his all,
Smoothing the way for his children small,
Doing with courage that cannot dim
The deeds that his father did for him.
Stronger each day than he's ever been,

Only a dad-
but the best of men.
